HISTORY OF THE COLLEGE

St. Francis de Sales College is manned by the Missionaries of St. Francis de Sales (MSFS) of South West India Province, who firmly believe that 'the education of the heart is the heart of education' hailed by its founder Fr. Peter Marie Mermier. The MSFS Fathers have nearly two centuries of experience and expertise in imparting quality higher education in every continent of the world. The MSFS Fathers are optimistically committed to forming the 'Future world citizens' through more than 160 quality educational institutions in India.

The college had a humble beginning with 09 students, Fr Anthony Swamy MSFS, the first principal, toiled hard for more than 8 years to bring the college to its present status. It was with the help of Fr. Dr. James Manjackal MSFS, a renowned global preacher, who financed the present infrastructure, that the college could come to what it is today in all its pomp and glory. The College was graded 'A' by the NAAC team for its excellent educational track as well as infrastructure and quality in May 2015. The College is now heading towards permanent recognition by the Bangalore University as well as autonomous status.
