ANTI TRAFFICKING CELL

ANNUAL REPORT

The Cell has been constituted with the aim of increasing awareness about human trafficking. This is established in the year 23-24 to adhere to the guidelines laid down by UGC in Feb 2023. The cell aims at increasing awareness among students and thereby the society about the rising issues of trafficking and ways of identifying and preventing them.

Objectives:

- To protect human rights
- To educate and orient on human rights
- To provide support in case of any complaints raised
- To organise programs for empowering women and vulnerable people in different situations
- To update the management on the rules and regulations framed by the government relating to prevention of anti-trafficking.

The cell plans to conduct gender sensitisation trainings and Workshops in combating human trafficking for students and staff. The complaints related to human trafficking will be addressed by this cell.
