The objective of the Program:

A debate was conducted as a class activity on 02/12/2022 for the final year BCA students which was moderated by Prof. Veena N. Debate is a useful tool for involving students and encouraging vocal participation. Students could investigate complex topics related to class discussions through debates and use what they have learned to support their arguments. Through an understanding of contentious issues and their complexities, they are able to increase their knowledge and obtain new learning outcomes.

The topic chosen for the debate was "The Best Process Model". Software Process models are one of the most popular topics in Software Engineering. Since Software Engineering is one of the core papers in their curriculum, this debate helped them to connect with the topic. Process models prescribe a distinct set of activities, actions, tasks, and milestones (deliverables) required to engineer high-quality software.

There were three groups formed for the class. The main process models, including the Waterfall, Evolutionary, and Spiral models, were selected for discussion. Each team was given a process model, which they advocated for while the opposing teams discussed it.
