The objective of the Program:

Ethnic Day is celebrated every year to promote and appreciate the diverse cultures and traditions of our country. It provides an opportunity for students from various backgrounds to come together, showcase their unique culture and foster a sense of unity and understanding.

SAMSKRUTHI - 2023, Ethnic day with the theme "Indian Culture " was organized by the Cultural Committee on 27 th May 2023. Ethnic Day is celebrated every year to promote and appreciate the diverse cultures and traditions of our country. It provides an opportunity for students from various backgrounds to come together, showcase their unique culture and foster a sense of unity and understanding.

For the first two hours of the day, the students were seated in their respective classes and activities such as debate, dumb charades, and pictionary were conducted by Prof. Veena N, Department of Computer Applications.

Students were divided into teams. The icebreaker round was intended to help groupmembers begin the process of forming themselves into a team. Students actively participated in the activities.

Debate was conducted on "Cultural Differences". As a result of this topic, we were able to discuss how our cultural differences in India make our country unique, as well as how we can use these differences for the country's growth. Several students underlined how unity can be found in diversity, and that India should be more open to different cultures and acceptance is the key to success.

The outcome of the program:

The event enhanced the ability to structure and organizes thoughts. And it was indeed a platform for students to express their pride in their respective ethnicities.
