The keynote speaker of the event was Ms. Meidini Prabhu. She is a linguist with a flair for writing, creative thinking and visualization. She has worked with advertising agencies, feature agency, animation firm. Apart from creative writing, she has insightful experience in interaction with clients and interviewing people in different fields. Also, she is a part of textbook committee for Generic English Course, Bangalore University and one of the authors of the book 'Spoken English for Corporate Jobs'. Presently, she is working with Surana College (autonomous) as the Head of the Department, English and Coordinator for BA Humanities Programme.

The program started by invoking God's blessing. After that, Prof. Madhuramozhi welcomed the keynote speaker Ms. Meidini Prabhu with a bouquet. She also welcomed the Principal, Rev. Dr. Roy; Vice Principal, Rev. Fr. Jijo Jose; Academic Coordinator, participants from different colleges and all the students for the seminar.

Prof. Archana introduced the keynote speaker to the audience. Prof. Meidini Prabhu addressed the gathering and motivated them to take up research in various disciplines. She pointed out that multidisciplinary approach to research will not only widen their horizon of knowledge but also help them to contribute in other areas. Total 17 research papers were presented in the seminar. There were both online as well as offline presenters. Judges announced the Best Presenter Award. Bhavyaa A N and Rishitha P from IV sem BCOM won the best presenter award for the research paper titled "I achieve not because of my gender: A journey into the autobiography: I am Vidhya. Bhagyalakshmi K A who presented the research paper titled "A Psychological Study of Anita Desai's women" won the best offline presenter award. All the winners were awarded certificate and cash prize. All the presenters and participants received the certificates for the presentation and participation respectively.

The students and faculty members from different colleges were highly benefited by the Student National Seminar. The day ended up with a valedictory session. The keynote speaker was felicitated by Prof. J.Umamaheswari, department of English, SFS College. The feedback form was shared with the students to get the feedback about the seminar. The Seminar concluded at 1.30pm. It was a well-organized seminar and both students and faculty members look forward to the next SNS.
