NON-COMPETE & NON-SOLICITATION OBLIGATIONS

A. The Employee acknowledges that he/she, during his/her employment with the Group may obtain access to Confidential Information and have dealings with the customers and suppliers of the Group. The Employee acknowledges the breadth of the covenants under this Clause and acknowledges that he/she has various other skill sets which, if deployed by him/her after he/she ceases to be an employee of or ceases to be associated with the Group would be sufficient to be gainfully employed without having to compete with the Group. The Employee undertakes that he/she shall not, during the Non-Compete Period anywhere in the world, either jointly or severally, directly or indirectly, and whether as an individual, investor, promoter, proprietor, shareholder, joint venture partner, collaborator, consultant, advisor, principal contractor or sub-contractor, director, trustee, committee member, office-bearer or agent or in any other manner whatsoever, whether for profit or otherwise commence, engage or be concerned in any business that competes with the whole or any part of any of the current or proposed business of the Group except on behalf of the Group, canvass or solicits business of a type similar to those being dealt in, or for services similar to those being provided by the Group from any Person;

B. induce or attempt to induce any customer/client of the Group to cease to be a customer/client, or otherwise interfere with the relationship between such a customer/client and the Group (save and except actions taken during the course of his/her employment in what he/she believes to be, in the Group's interest);

C. induce or attempt to induce any director of the Company, senior management personnel or key employee of the Company to leave the employment of the Company.

D. During the Non-Compete Period, the Employee shall not anywhere in the world, either jointly or severally, directly or indirectly, and whether as an individual, investor, promoter, proprietor, shareholder, joint venture partner, collaborator, consultant, advisor, principal contractor or sub-contractor, director, trustee, committee member, office-bearer or agent or in any other manner whatsoever, whether for profit or otherwise;

E. solicit any Person then engaged by the Group as an employee, full-time equivalent, officer, consultant, contractor or director or so engaged within the preceding 12 (twelve) month period ("Existing Employee") to leave the employment of the Group, and shall use its best efforts to prevent any of its related entities or Persons from taking any such action;

F. disclose to any third party the names, backgrounds or qualifications of any the Existing Employees or otherwise identify them as potential candidates for employment. G. approach, recruit or otherwise solicit Existing Employees to work for any other employer.

H. persuade any Person which is a vendor/consultant of the Group, to cease doing business or to reduce the amount of business which any such Person has customarily done or might propose doing with the Group.

I. The covenants in this Clause and the time and other limitations with respect thereto are reasonable as to duration and subject matter, properly required for the adequate protection of the value and goodwill of the Group and such limitations are reasonable with respect to the activities of the Group.

J. It is the intention of the Parties that the provisions of this Clause shall be enforced to the fullest extent permissible under the applicable law, but that the unenforceability (or the modification to conform with such applicable Laws) of any provision hereof shall not render unenforceable or impair the remainder of this Clause. If any provision of this Clause shall be determined to be invalid or unenforceable, either in whole or in part, this Clause shall be deemed to be amended or modified, as necessary, the offending provision and to alter the remaining provisions of this Clause to the extent necessary to render the same valid and enforceable to the fullest extent permissible.

K. Nothing herein contained shall affect the Employee's non-competition and non-solicitation obligations set forth in the Transaction Document. The obligations are independent of each other and shall bind the Employee independently.

CONFIDENTIALITY

The Employee shall not, whether during his/her employment with the Group or after the termination of his/her employment, for any reason, directly or indirectly, use for himself/herself or use for or disclose to any Person any Confidential Information other than for the benefit of Group and in the course of performing his duties and responsibilities.

A. Without prejudice to the generality of the foregoing, the Employee shall:

a. keep confidential the Confidential Information and not disclose the same to any third party or use the same for the Employee's benefit or for the benefit (financial or otherwise) of any third party, except as expressly permitted by the Agreement or except with the prior written consent of the Company.

b. protect the Confidential Information received with all reasonable care so as to ensure that the same does not fall into the hands of third parties or is not put to unauthorized use. c. not reproduce in any form the Confidential Information except with the prior written consent of the Company.

B. The confidentiality obligations under the Agreement shall not prevent the Employee from disclosing the same if required by law or under the orders of any court of competent jurisdiction or other competent legal authority, provided that the Employee gives the Company notice of such intended disclosure and an opportunity to oppose the same.

C. The Employee confirms that all Confidential Information shall remain the sole and absolute property of the Group or any third party, as applicable. The Employee shall, at the time of leaving the services of the Company, return all Confidential Information and other Company property, which he/she is in possession of.

D. The obligations under this Clause 5 shall survive the termination of the Agreement and shall survive so long as such information remains confidential. The Employee also acknowledges that use of the Confidential Information contrary to the provisions of the Agreement constitutes, among other things, criminal breach of trust in terms of the provisions of the Indian Penal Code, 1860.

E. The provisions of the Agreement for the protection of Confidential Information shall apply notwithstanding that the Employee has unauthorized or inadvertently obtained access to or otherwise come into possession of such Confidential Information.

F. In order to secure or preserve Confidential Information, the Company shall have the right at all times to deactivate, disable, remove or prevent access to any Company property, including computers, servers, computer networks, email accounts, databases, storage, and vehicles.

Your date of Joining is 07-06-2023.

We look forward for your acceptance of this offer to begin your most exciting journey ahead.

ALTRUIST TECHNOLOGIES PRIVATE LIMITED- THIRD PARTY DOWNLOAD POLICY

Purpose

This downloads and executables policy of Altruist Technologies Private Limited and associate companies has been established to set guidelines in an effort to clarify the type and nature of files that employees are allowed to download from third-party sources into their local computers, although it would be impossible to name every executable or download file in this policy.

Scope

This policy is applicable to all the users of Altruist Technologies Private Limited and associate companies. Users should adhere to these broad guidelines:-

- A. The download is from a reputable source.
- B. The file does not subject the company in potential liability.
- C. The application, tool, or template has been approved by IT Department.

Policy Guidelines

The following is a list of files that employees can download into their local machine.

1. Skype- Since the company has a set 1M Policy, Skype is the approved instant Messaging/Voice Communication application. As with all 1M application, users are encouraged to keep personal messaging/communication within reasonable levels.
2. WinZip - Employees who e-mail large files to clients and vendors are encouraged to use WinZip, a compression utility. Ask IT department if you do not have this installed on your Computer.
3. Ad-ware- As employees may unwittingly download 'adware' into their local machines, applications such as Ad-ware and Spy hot, which scans a user's system for 'adware' are allowed. Please note that some useful proprietary applications on the company network are seen as adware by this and other similar applications. Contact the IT department if you have questions about this kind of application.
4. Adobe Acrobat Reader- Download of this free Reader is permitted for viewing files received in PDF format.
5. E-Book applications- This includes Microsoft Reader, Palm Reader, and other third-party applications that allow users to download work related texts onto their local machines.

Prohibited downloads

The following downloads are not allowed on company computer resources unless approved by IT Department,

1. Instant Messenger- It is prohibited to use any other application other than Skype. 1M applications such as MSN Messenger, Yahoo! Messenger, Rediff mail Messengers, AOL. Etc. are not allowed.
2. Online Music and Games- Since games and music provide no benefit to our organisation and have a tendency to affect productivity, they are not allowed on company machines. Team members are not allowed to use any web based applications/tools to listen to music and view streaming media on their work station.
3. Peer to peer file sharing- Peer to peer file sharing applications have come under scrutiny in recent years for their ability to allow users to share copyrighted material and for the network resources that they consume. Hence all peer-in-peer file sharing applications are not permitted. These could include ones such as Kazaa, iMesh, Morpheus, WinMX, LimeWire, Groster, BearShare.
4. Personal Firewalls- While security is an issue that every employee can help manage; IT department does not allow the use of personal firewalls such as Zone Alarm or others on our computers.
5. Third party screen saver or wallpaper- It is possible that some of our team members might use Screen Savers or Wall Papers that might be deemed offensive. Employees will use the default screen savers and default Windows Wallpapers available on their computers.

- 11C. Creating or exchanging solicitations, chain letters, and other unsolicited Email.
12. Registering to non business related list servers without proper authorisation. Subscription to search a service can result in an overload of received messages directly impacting the performance of state email systems.
13. Engaging in any political activity prohibited by law.
14. Using the system for any illegal purpose.
G. Users may not knowingly or wilfully create or propagate any virus, worm Trojan horse, or other destructive program code.
H. Each user account depending on nature of function will have quote on the mailbox size. Exceeding the quota will calls bouncing of individual Mail. Managing mailbox size is individual responsibility and the company is not responsible for anymails bouncing because of over size of mailbox. Regular archiving of required data is suggested and is individual responsibility.
I. Violation of this policy may result in disciplinary or legal action.

Responsibility- Employees using the email system are deemed to have accepted the responsibilities and obligations imposed by state, and local laws and regulation as well as the companies adopted policies, procedures, standards, and guidelines.

- D. User should not pursue, obtain, exchange or distribute any unauthorised information that could cause congestion or disruption to email system such as screen savers, audio, or video clips, in violation of any licensing agreement.
E. User shall not access another email system without authorisation from that user or that user supervisor. Users must not compromised the privacy of their password by giving it to others or exposing it to public view password should be changed on a regular basis. If a user discloses his / her password to someone else knowingly or unknowingly, then he / she will continue to be responsible for all objectionable actions happening on usage of the same.
F. User should schedule, wherever possible, communication in tenses operative operations such as large file transfers, video download, mass emailing, and the like for off peak usage times. I have read and understood the terms and conditions mentioned above and agree to abide by the same.
