

Report on Aptitude test for Government Exams.

Date: 10-09-2019

Venue: Room No105

Conducted By: Mr. Benet Rajadurai,

Organised by: Placement and competitive Cell

An awareness and introduction session related to Government Department examination was contacted for the both PG and UG students on 10th September 2019.

A session on Aptitude Test relating to Governemnt department exams were covered in the session. Among them students were given the guidance on how to takeup NTA-UGC-NET, is the test for determining the eligibility for the post of Assistant Professor and/or Junior Research Fellowship (JRF) award in Indian universities and colleges. This exam was considered as one of the toughest exams in India, with success ratio of merely 6%. Previously, the passing ratio was around 3% - 4%. Assistant Professors in private colleges may or may not be NET qualified but NET qualification is mandatory for universities & government colleges. University Grants Commission (UGC) announced in 2013 that the candidates who clear the NET successfully would be eligible for lucrative jobs in public sector undertakings (PSUs). PSUs can use UGC-NET scores for the recruitment process of the posts of executives in their organizations in disciplines like science (R&D), management, corporate communications, human resources, and finance.

The main objective of the training was to prepare students for appearing in the National Educational Testing (NET). The session's concentration was on strengthening the student's quantitative, verbal and reasoning skills. The objective was to exercise the student's brain and prepare them with common topics as mentioned below. Speed, agility, decisiveness and time management plays a crucial role while attending the exam. Training includes mock tests to prepare the students in real life scenarios.

The programme focuses on the following areas:

1. Know about the Exam Pattern:
2. Go through the entire syllabus:
3. Books to refer:
4. Solve previous year's papers:
5. Practice Online Mock-Test:
6. Make short notes during preparation or highlight the important points in the book to save time. Revision:

The resource person said that for any departmental exams aptitude related questions are basic questions will be the part of the exams. The students are guided to take up the departmental exams on a competitive mode and should never give up at first appearance. The guest informed them that these are the exams boost the students to come of examphobia and fear of failure. Only on repetitive efforts the students can succeed in clearing these exams.

The students should give utmost care preparing by understanding the subject-wise topics to be covered for the examination based on the latest pattern and syllabus. The Paper-I consists of General Aptitude Questions and Paper-II contains questions related to the concerned subject. Candidates are required to appear for both the papers in order to be eligible for JRF and Assistant Professor or Assistant Professor only.

These tips and information provided by the resource person helped the students a great deal to be successful in the examination that they might appear for in the near future.
