3. Provide information on the eligibility criteria, examination process, and preparation strategies for civil service examinations
4. Showcase the benefits and potential for growth and impact in a civil service career
5. Motivate and inspire students to consider civil service as a viable and rewarding career option

The outcome of the program:

The orientation program consisted of various sessions and activities designed to engage and inform participants about civil service as a career choice. The following key elements were included:

Overview of Civil Service: A comprehensive overview of the civil service was presented, covering its importance, role in governance, and contribution to public service. The speaker emphasized the significance of civil servants in shaping policies and implementing government initiatives.

Career Opportunities: Participants were introduced to the wide range of career opportunities within the civil service, including administrative services, police services, foreign services, revenue services, and more. Real-life examples and success stories of civil servants were shared to inspire participants.

Eligibility and Examination Process: The program provided detailed information on the eligibility criteria and examination process for civil service exams. Participants were guided through the different stages of the examination, including the preliminary exam, mains exam, and interview, along with tips for effective preparation.

Preparation Strategies: Strategies and resources for preparing for civil service examinations were discussed, including recommended books, online platforms, coaching institutes, and time management techniques. Participants were encouraged to develop a structured study plan and adopt a multidimensional approach to cover various subjects and current affairs.

Q&A and Networking: The program concluded with a question-and-answer session, allowing participants to seek clarification on any doubts or concerns. Participants were also encouraged to network with fellow attendees and the speakers to foster a supportive community for aspirants.
