As a part of the Memorandum of Understanding (MoU) between SFS College and GFGC, Department of English, Saint Francis de Sales College, and Government first grade College (GFGC) Vijayanagar, jointly organised an online guest lecture for the first year undergraduate students of B.A. (Optional English) titled "Things Fall Apart" on 19th December 2022 from 5 PM to 6.30 PM. The guest speaker for the session was Fahmida Patla, Assistant Professor, GFGC, Vijayanagara. The session was moderated by Professor Sivakami. The session started with a prayer song and introduction of the speaker. Dr. Fhamida started the session by introducing the author of the novel Things Fall Apart, Chinua Achebe and then went on to discuss the major characters of the novel like Ezinma, Ikemefuma, Nwoye, Okonkwo and Mr. Brown. Then she gave a brief summary of the novel followed by a discussion on the themes like colonisation, tradition, language, masculinity, fate and free will. The session was followed by an interactive question and answer session. The students asked many questions to the resource person which was answered. It was a very educative and interesting session.

Report:

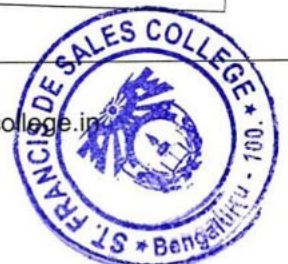

“Knowledge is the hidden beauty in every individual so feel proud of sharing your knowledge to others”

NEP- 2020 has been framed to transform the Indian Education system to meet the academic requirements of the 21s Century. The new policy seeks rectification of poor literacy and numeracy outcomes associated with the adoption of the multi-disciplinary approach in the education system. The policy also focuses on restructuring curriculum and pedagogy. It has laid its emphasis on the revival and promotion of ancient Indian languages, tradition, culture, and alludes to the world’s ancient universities and Multi-Disciplinary education system. National Education Policy 2020 aims at equipping students with knowledge, skills, values, leadership qualities and initiating them for lifelong learning. It is in tune with the global education development agenda.

To understand third semester Optional English NEP 2020 and its implications for language learning, especially of English language and literature, the department of English, St. Francis de Sales College collaboration with Government First Grade College, Vijayanagara organized a workshop on ‘Orientation on Third Semester OE Syllabus NEP 2020’ The resource person who took us on an interesting ride into the mechanism of NEP Optional English Syllabus were Dr.R.G. Mathapati and Gnaneswara.T.N. Prof. Sushma welcomed the speaker of the day and introduced her and conducted the session as well.

Dr.Thammiah.R.B delivered the inaugural address and Dr.Fahmeeda.P, Assistant Professor in GFCC gave the keynote address.

In the session-I, Dr.Mathapati talked about the British Literature upto 1800. Dr. Rajashekharrayya Mathapati is presently working as an assistant Professor of English at Government First Grade College, Vijayanagara, Bengaluru. He has presented papers in National and International seminars. He has published articles in UGC approved international journal and is the author of 89 books on critical analysis of British literature. He is a member of BoS in Bangalore University. He is a member of textbook committee for III semester Optional English in Bangalore University. He has contributed a number of articles in Kannada. Further his novel called DANDI has been produced as a movie in kannada and has received both a critique's and common man's appreciation. He explained the syllabus completely in detail and spotlighted the significance of the syllabus. Dr. Rajashekharrayya Mathapati began the session by sharing light on the Optional English III semester of New Educational Policy. It lays emphasis on the revival and promotion of ancient Indian languages, tradition and culture. NEP stresses upon the fact that each unit should be different in themes and research should be promoted. NEP also has as its objective to remove disparity and equalize educational opportunities to all in the society. SEDG in NEP will club all those socially, economically disadvantaged groups which also includes physically and mentally challenged. Education becomes inclusive with NEP and helps students to face life with courage and confidence.

In session II Prof.Gnaneswara.T.N delivered the detail explanation about the Indian Literature in English Translation paper. Prof. T.N. Gnaneswara is presently working as Assistant Professor of English at Government First Grade College, Vijayanagar, Bengaluru. He has presented a paper in a national conference, a paper in a national seminar and two papers in international seminars. He has published an article in a UGC approved international journal and two articles in edited books. He was a member of BOE in Raichur Univesity during 2021-2022. He is a member of textbook committee for all III semester Optional English in Bangalore University. He has written more than 30 articles in Kannada.

He explained on the text book units like Novel, short stories in detail.

The resource person's informative session turned interactive with the QA session. Questions posed by the faculty from the department of English, led the guest to inform us of the styles of imparting quality education and detailed view on the III semester Optional English.

As a part of the Memorandum of Understanding (MoU) between SFS College and GFGC, Department of English, Saint Francis de Sales College, and Government first grade College (GFGC) Vijayanagar, jointly organised an online guest lecture for the first year undergraduate students of B.A. (Optional English) on the topic "Larins Sahib" on 20th December 2022 from 5 PM to 6.30 PM on GoogleMeet. The guest speaker for the session was Dr Madhuramozhi, Assisntand Professor, SFS College. The session was moderated by Professor Sushma. The session started with a prayer song and introduction of the speaker by Prof. Anusha. Dr. Madhuramozhi, started the session by introducing the author of the novel , Larins Sahib, Gurcharan Das and then went on to give a brief summary of the novel. She then discussed the major characters of the novel. The speaker discussed the dilemma of the hero, who is torn between his professional loyalty to the East India company and his sympathy for the Sikh king Daleep Singh. She also explains how the play captures the ambivalent relationship between the coloniser and the colonised, which is marked by political contempt and hatred on one hand and by emotional sympathy and understanding on the other. The resource person provided an in-depth critical analysis of the novel, Larins Saheb. The session was followed by an interactive question and answer session. The student asked many questions to the resource person who answered all the questions patiently. It was a very educative and interactive session.
