Today, the craze for Advertisement of manufactured goods is on the increase. The Act of Advertisement is, in fact, a modern development. It has revolutionized the modern trade. Modern life is highly complex and mechanical. People have no time to go into the soul of things. They want to buy largely advertised goods. The manufacturer, in his turn, wants to popularize his goods before they are manufactured. Such is the craze for advertised goods. We are living in the age of advertisement. No wonder one sees shining and multi-colored bill-boards hung on poles displaying goods advertised. There is a spate of magazines and journals which spare pages for latest variety of goods manufactured. Radio and television are humming with advertisements of new products. Advertisements hold the sway and no manufacturer can do without it. A thing may not have intrinsic value but it must be well advertised. We live in a glamorous world of advertisement.
