The Department of Humanities in collaboration with Research and IP Cell organized SEMINAR - One Week Guest Lecture Series from 25-10-2021 till 26-10-2021. The series focuses on nurturing the research culture among the under graduate students of St Francis De Sales College.

The major objectives of the guest lecture series are as follows:

- It brings in opportunities for students to learn new and acquire knowledge.
- It brings in interactive learning among students
- It inspires the students
- Students get an idea regarding the career paths and the future goals that need to be set.
- It helps students improve their learning in a more interactive, topic specific way.

As a part of the guest lecture, on 25-10-2021, the Department organized a two-hour session for Journalism with the topic "MEDIA LITERACY." Dr. Shilpa Kalyan is an Assistant Professor of Presidency University, Bangalore. Her major focus was on Media, the fake news and the many aspects related to it.

She has completed her PhD, and she has done many projects and presented papers in many national and International Conferences.

The program started at 12:00pm with a welcome and the introduction was delivered by Desalite Priyanka Kumari of II BA (JPE). The session was handed over to the speaker. The session on Medial Literacy created an overall impact among fake news.
