Report on Vihaan – '19 25.09.19

“Vihaan 2019 – A new light of beginning”, the inauguration of the PG first year classes was held on 25th September 2019. The PG Centre took up the responsibility of organizing Vihaan 2019 and the Chief Guest was Mr. Suresh R, MD, Talentine Indai Operations, Bangalore. The program coordinator was Prof. Mahesh, who oversaw the overall organisation of the event.

The program started at 10.00 a.m. in the auditorium. The Chief guest Mr. Suresh along with the Principal, Vice Principal and Dr. Gurubasavaraja, PG Coordinator arrived at the auditorium. The MC's Jayanth and Swathi welcomed everyone to the occasion. The program started with a prayer song by Supriya and the team. It was followed by lighting the lamp and a welcome dance by Sohani and her team.

The investiture ceremony was conducted as part of Vihaan '19. The Chief guest conferred the batches and sashes to the elected members. The former chairperson Nikhil U handed over the college flag to the Principal. The Principal inducted them to their office by handing over the college flag to the Chairperson and administered the oath to the Council. The Council members were congratulated by all.

Following the investiture ceremony, the chief guest Mr. Suresh addressed the gathering. His speech enthralled the audience. He spoke of how students have to look upon life and the future. He wanted the students to have a goal and keep working on that. He wanted them to have a spark and live a happy and satisfying life. He also spoke on the importance of communication and how students have to develop their communication skills while they are at the college.

The chief guest speech was followed by the Principal's address. The Principal quoted the example of Mr. Sundar Pichai, the CEO of Google and his cockroach theory. He explained to the students about the importance of responding and reacting to a situation. He also spoke on living a quality life and get the most out of college life.
