RAZZMATAZZ 2019

REPORT

A one day national level inter-collegiate cultural fest RAZZMATAZZ was held on 1st October, 2019 at St. Francis de Sales College with the theme "Celebrations and Human Culture". RAZZMATAZZ is the most awaited cultural fest of the college which brings the students from the various other colleges under the same platform to showcase their cultural talents.

The fest was inaugurated by the well known actor of the Kannada film industry Mr. Pramod Shetty. His presence added colors for the fest. The Principal of the college, Rev. Dr. Roy extended a cheerful welcome to all those who had gathered.

Following the inaugural programme, various events which includes group song, adaptune, group choreography, fashion show was held on the main stage. The participants received a good encouragement and support from the huge crowd which was present. The applaud and howling of the audience filled the premises. Other events which were held in the auditorium simultaneously included mime and short film. First time ever we had off stage events includes face painting and pencil sketching held in the room numbers 202 and 203. To judge the events, judges experts in that area were invited. For judging the individual events, we had two judges and for judging the group events, we had three judges. The food stalls and other stalls which were put attracted the crowd. Green rooms were provided to all the participants.

Soon after the fashion show event came to an end and then the valedictory ceremony began. The chief guest of the valedictory ceremony was the Circle Inspector, Mr. Shekar. During the valedictory prizes were given away by the chief guest and the principal of the college, Rev. Dr. Roy.
