The Department of Humanities, Post- Graduation Centre Economics and Post- Graduation Centre Psychology in collaboration with Research Cell organized SAMVADA- One Day Student National Seminar on the 24th June, 2022.

The major objectives of Student National Seminar are as follows:

- To enhance the research knowledge in depth for both the Under- graduate and the Post- Graduate students.
- To make students understand and comprehend the skills of critical evaluation and integrative discussion.

The Seminar was started with the welcoming of the gathering and followed by introduction of the Resource person. The resource person was Dr. Karamala Areesh Kumar, who is an Assistant Professor at St. Joseph's College (Autonomous), Bangalore. He was awarded his PhD from JNU, New Delhi. He has published many National and International papers in various journals.

He is currently into the BOE position at Suranna College (Autonomous), Bangalore.

The session was handed over to him for his technical session wherein he spoke about the various changes that has happened in the field of education and how the digitalization has become a common part in every student and teachers' life.

He even gave a glimpse of various universities that gives priorities in providing PhD.

Later on, the offline paper presentations were commenced. The students showcased their presentation skills and their research skills. The papers were evaluated by External judge exclusively and the internal judge was just monitoring all the presentations. The final judgement was based on the scores given by the external judge.

The external judge gave his remarks what was observed so that the presenters and even the faculties can implement while presenting the papers. He even appreciated the efforts and hard work put in by the students in presenting papers in the Under graduate level.

The offline session started by 2:00pm wherein we had around 7 presentations. The papers from the background of both Economics and Psychology.

At the end the judge gave his remarks. The valedictory was done and an appreciation letter and a memento were given to the external judge.

From the many papers that were presented, one of the best presenter awards was awarded to Ambika Singha and Steffi Joseph from II BSc CJP, which was titled PSYCHOLOGY AND APPLICATION IN THE DIGITAL ERA: THE IMPACT OF DIGITAL ERA ON MODERN PSYCHOLOGY.

The major outcomes from the Department are as follows:

- The Student National Seminar aims at to produce research skills and explore their publication skills. Therefore, the Department of Humanities is planning to call for peer-reviewed journal with an ISBN number for this academic year.
- The details of the ISBN number, Journal name will be intimated once the authenticity of the paper is confirmed.
