The objective of the Program:

The Student National Seminar-2023 was a remarkable event organized by the Dept. of Computer Applications that aimed to foster knowledge exchange, intellectual growth, and personal development among students. The seminar provided a platform for students to showcase their research, share their ideas, and engage in meaningful discussions on various topics of interest. SNS-2023 was conducted on July 23, 2023 at SFS college AC seminar hall.

Chandan, Bhargavi and Mahalakshmi of II Sem BCA, took part to be the MC of the program and Kumar Swamy of II Sem BCA welcomed everyone to the event. Addressing of the gathering was done by Jeevitha and Manisha of II Sem BCA.

Dr. Nisha Varghese started the session with quote which stated- "Where we are standing today and what we should to excel in future". She also discussed about phases of Industrialization from 1.0 to 5.0, Artificial Intelligence, IOT, Machine learning, Augmented and Virtual reality, Additive technology, Cyber security and Natural Language Processing.

The offline and online presentations were made on the following topics:

Machine learning in heart disease prediction, AI in UX design, Bioinformatics, Evolutions of C-ITS application, Cybersecurity, Data science in health care, AI in Education, Cloud computing, Big data, Semantic web, Networking and communication, Home automation in IOT and IOT based gas leakage detection.

The whole program was coordinated by Prof Saranya Anil along with all the faculty members of Dept. of Computer Applications in collaboration with the research cell.

The outcome of the program:

The seminar provided an excellent platform for students to share their research findings and innovative ideas with a wider audience. The exchange of knowledge contributed to the intellectual growth of the participants. The seminar served as a valuable opportunity for personal and professional development. The SNS-2023 proved to be a resounding success, achieving its objectives of knowledge exchange, skill development, and fostering collaboration among students. The event showcased the intellectual progress and talent of our student community while promoting a culture of research and critical thinking. The seminar not only empowered students but also inspired them to continue their academic pursuits with renewed enthusiasm.
