Dear Sir/Madam,

Subject: Request the school to give the dry waste and save environment and promote recycling.

Samarthanam Trust for the Disabled is a registered Trust working for the empowerment of persons with disabilities especially persons with visual and physical impairments and underprivileged people since 1997. The organization headed by Shri. G K Mahantesh, a visually impaired social entrepreneur, the organisation's aim is to provide opportunity for persons with disabilities and underprivileged communities in India to keep pace with the rest of the society by facilitating quality education, vocational training, placement and rehabilitation support.

Samarthanam Parisara, the waste management program was initiated in the year 2003 by Samarthanam Trust for the Disabled. It has emerged as a reliable waste management partner for individuals, apartments, educational institutions, and corporate houses because of prompt service, the state of the art waste management technologies, and transport and handling equipment.

Objectives:

The goal is to create a waste free environment and to constantly work on environment-friendly, cost-effective, innovative and sustainable technology.

Samarthanam has MOU with M/S ITC INDIA LTD for recycling waste paper received from corporates, apartments block and education Institutions. Samarthanam has channel partnership with e-waste recyclers. The revenues generated from Parisara program is being utilized for various other organizational program.

This is to certify that persons from WOW team working on collections of paper waste are approaching Institutions, corporate offices and also have educated the household in the ward about segregation of waste at source.

Request you to kindly cooperate.
