to publish it in the standard journals which are listed in UGC CARE. This 'hands on session' was very much useful for the second year M.Com students.

Through this program all the students of second year M.Com came to know how to structure the research paper, what contents should be included in the paper, and how to write the research report. This program encourages to do the research and to publish it. In this programme the concentration was given for selection of research topic based on identifying the research problems. It was the interactive session. All the students were interacted well and shared their ideas. At the end of the session many students asked their doubts and were clarified. All the students were asked to submit the report on their selected research topic and research problem.

Positive Outcome:

The prime objective of the 'Hands on session' was to promote the knowledge about research among post graduate commerce students of SFS College. The Akarya club, PG Department of commerce took effort to conduct the program to understand more about Research in the academic fields. The Participants of this program got more information about the writing procedure of the article. It was the informative and encouraging session for the second year M.Com students who are attended this program.
