Report

The Faculty Enrichment Committee organized a Faculty Development Programme for teaching staff on the topic "Stock Market-A Road Not Taken- Session II" on 21st March 2022 between 2.15 p.m and 3.00 p.m as part of the Desalite Learning Hub. The program was conducted in the Business Lab. A total of 17 teaching staff participated in the session. The resource person for the session was Lavin A Bhawanani, Assistant Professor from the Department of Commerce, SFS College, Bengaluru.

The specific objective of this Desalite Learning Hub was to encourage the faculties to develop their skills in diversified areas. This Faculty Development Programme aimed at introducing the faculty to Stock Market trading and understanding of how to buy and sell stocks. It was conducted to explain what a Demat Account is and how to open a Demat Account and how to select a share for purchase or sale in a stock market. The resource person explained the concepts with great interest and showed Stock Market Live for better understanding.

All those who participated were able to understand the concept and showed immense interest in investing in the stocks. The participants of this program got more information about the Stock market and how to trade in it. It was an informative and encouraging session for all teaching faculties.
