OBJECTIVE:

According to the United Nations, an estimated 6000 languages are spoken in the world and around 43 percent of them are endangered. Only a few hundred languages have been recognised in the education system.

Hence, International Mother Language Day is observed to understand the importance of multilingualism, along with promoting and preserving it.

INTRODUCTION:

The theme of the 2022 International Mother Language Day, "Using technology for multilingual learning: Challenges and opportunities", will discuss the potential role of technology to advance multilingual education and support the development of quality teaching and learning for all.

1. Mother language means a language through which the people of a nation express their idea, thoughts, feelings, and emotions clearly.
2. 21st February is International Mother Language Day. To show due honour and respect to the existing mother languages of different countries, the afternoon has been declared as
3. International Mother Language Day by UNESCO.
4. Bangladesh Govt. the declaration has arrived at reality. Your day features a long glorious historical background. The individuals of our country burst into protestation against this unjustified decision.
5. The objective of observing the afternoon is, to pay homage to the language martyrs. Your day is essential for the folks of Bangladesh.
6. Bangla language has now been recognized as the sweetest in the world.
7. The introduction of the mother language will not only promote linguistic diversity and much language-based education.
8. World solidarity will undoubtedly be strengthened centred on mutual understanding, tolerance, and dialogue.
9. Motherland is really a blossomed flower, and its fragrance is the mother tongue.
10. Children learn best in their mother tongue and that it is important that children need to have this opportunity.
11. Native language content is merely more efficient, and that's true whether you're attempting to inform, educate, or persuade

OUTCOME:

The day focuses on how languages hold strategic importance for people and can advance the process of education and development. International Mother Language Day promotes the existence of multilingualism in societies and aims to preserve traditional knowledge and cultures through sustainable methods. Mother tongue is the language that a child gets to hear after birth and helps give a definite shape to our feelings and thoughts. Learning in the mother tongue is also crucial for improving other critical thinking skills, second language learning, and literacy skills.
