Report on Guest Lecture on Approaches to Research and Interpretation on Photography during World War II

Date: 12/01/2020

Time: 11:00 AM

Venue/Online Platform: G-Meet

The Department of Humanities in collaboration with Research and IP Cell organised 'Infinity 2021- Guest Lecture Series' from 11 January 2021 to 13 January 2021 for all the semesters of BA students. The Infinity guest lecture series focuses on nurturing the research culture among post graduate as well as under graduate students. As part of guest lecture series the Department of History invited Shilpa mathew Assistant professor of history, Parazhi raja college, Wayanad to deliver the lecture on 'Photography during world war 2' through virtual mode using G-Meet platform. Shilpa mathew is doing Ph.D from Kuvempu University. She has published several national level research papers in various journals. He has also received awards from various organizations.

The program began at 11:00 AM with welcome speech, which was delivered by Adithi Sharma of I sem BA (HEP) and the speaker was introduced to the participants by Pooja HC of I sem BA (HEP). Then the session was handed over to the speaker. The session went one and half an hour enlightening the knowledge of students. At the end of the session students raised questions and all the doubts of the students were addressed effectively by the speaker. And the virtual session came to an end with the vote of thanks delivered by Neha of I sem BA (HEP). And student's opinion was collected through G-Form link.
